

EXPORT LICENCE

Open General Export Licence (Export After Exhibition: Dual-Use Items) dated 8th January 2010 granted by the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by Articles 9(2) and (4) of Council Regulation (EC) No. 428/2009 ("the Regulation")^(a) and Article 26 of the Export Control Order 2008 ("the Order")^(b), hereby grants the following Open General Export Licence:

Community Licence

1. This is general export authorisation under the terms of Article 9(2) of Council Regulation (EC) No. 428/2009. This authorisation, in accordance with Article 9(2) of that Regulation, is valid in all Member States of the European Community and is a Community Licence for the purposes of the Order.

2. Subject to the following provisions of this Licence, any items specified in Part A of Schedule 1 hereto, other than any specified in Part B of that Schedule, which have been temporarily imported into the European Community for the purpose of exhibition may be subsequently exported from the United Kingdom, or from any other Member State by any person established in the United Kingdom, to any destination except a destination in a country specified in Schedule 2 provided the item is being exported for delivery to:
 - (1) the person who sent them to the European Community for exhibition, and

(a) O.J. No. L134 29.5.09. p.1.

(b) S.I. 2008/3231

- (2) the country from which they were imported into the European Community.

Exclusions

3. This Licence does not authorise the export of items:

- (1) if the exporter has been informed by a competent authority of the Member State where he is established that they are or may be intended, in their entirety or in part
 - (a) for use in connection with the development, production, handling, operation, maintenance, storage, detection, identification or dissemination of chemical, biological or nuclear weapons, or other nuclear explosive devices or the development, production, maintenance or storage of missiles capable of delivering such weapons,
 - (b) for a military end use and the purchasing country or country of destination is subject to an arms embargo decided by a Common Position or Joint Action adopted by the Council of the European Union or a decision of the OSCE or imposed by a binding resolution of the Security Council of the United Nations, or
 - (c) for use as parts or components of military items listed in the national military list that have been exported from the territory of the Member State concerned without authorisation or in violation of an authorisation prescribed by national legislation of that Member State;

- (2) if the exporter is aware that the items in question are intended, in their entirety or in part, for any of the uses referred to in sub-paragraph (1);
- (3) if the exporter has grounds for suspecting that the items in question are or may be intended, in their entirety or in part, for any of the uses referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a), unless the exporter has made all reasonable enquiries as to their proposed use and is satisfied that the items will not be so used;
- (4) to a destination within a Customs Free Zone; or
- (5) if their export is controlled by virtue of any entry in Annex I to the Regulation not specified in Schedule 1.

Conditions and Requirements

4. The authorisation in paragraph 1 is subject to the following conditions:
 - (1) any items imported into the European Community pursuant to this Licence shall have been;
 - (a) imported under an appropriate Customs temporary Procedure; or
 - (b) imported under an ATA CARNET.
 - (2) items exported pursuant to this Licence shall have been imported into the European Community no earlier than two years prior to the date of exportation;
 - (3) on exportation of any items pursuant to this Licence, the exporter shall produce to an officer of HM Border Agency, if so requested, documentary evidence of the date of their importation into the European Community, and that the items are being returned to the person and the country from which they were imported into the European Community;

- (4) except in the case of an export of technology by telephone, fax or other electronic media, official and commercial export documentation accompanying the items shall include a note stating that "These items are being exported under the Open General Export Licence (Export After Exhibition: Dual-Use Items)" and shall be presented to an officer of HM Border Agency if so requested;

Registration

5. The requirements of Article 28 of the Order shall not apply to this Licence.

Prohibitions not affected by this Licence

6. Nothing in this Licence affects any prohibition or restriction on the export of any items other than under the Regulation or the Order, and this licence does not confer any licence or permission under, or for the purposes of, any enactment other than the Regulation and the Order.

Interpretation

7. For the purpose of this Licence:
 - (1) "Customs Free Zone" means a part of the territory of a country where any goods introduced are generally regarded, insofar as import duties and taxes are concerned, as being outside the customs territory of that country, and are not subject to the customs controls that would otherwise apply;

- (2) "entry" includes part of an entry;
- (3) "exhibition" includes demonstration and/or evaluation; and
- (4) unless the context otherwise requires, any other expression used in this Licence has the same meaning as in the Regulation or the Order as appropriate.

Entry into Force

8. This Licence comes into force on 15th January 2010.
9. The Open General Export Licence (Export After Exhibition: Dual-Use Items) dated 12 August 2009 is revoked.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the licence)

This Open General Export Licence has been amended by adding Sri Lanka to the list of excluded destinations. This follows a review of the scope of the licence in view of the ongoing concerns with the situation in country.

2. This Open General Export Licence permits, without further authority but subject to certain conditions, the export from the United Kingdom, or from any other Member State of the European Community (EC) where the exporter is established in the United Kingdom, to any destination other than one listed in Schedule 2 to the Licence of items specified in Part A of Schedule 1 to the Licence, other than those specified in Part B of that Schedule, which have been temporarily imported into the United Kingdom or another Member State of the EC for exhibition.
3. The Export Control Order 2008 (“the Order”) contain certain registration requirements which do not apply to persons using this Licence.
4. It is condition of this Licence that items being exported under the terms of this Licence shall have been imported into the United Kingdom or another Member State of the EC no earlier than two years before the date of exportation.
5. It is also a requirement of this Licence that the exporter shall produce to an officer of HM Border Agency, if so requested, documentary evidence of the date of importation of the items into the United Kingdom or other Member State of the EC.
6. This Licence does not extend to any prohibition under legislation other than Council Regulation (EC) No.428/2009 or the Order: in particular it does not extend to prohibitions in other legislation implementing United Nations sanctions.
